VETERANS IN NEW HOME

Quarters of Confederate Association Dedicated.

HOSPITALITY OF THE SOUTH

Spirit of Chivalry and of Devotion to High Ideals.

TRIBUTES TO MEMORY OF LEE

Addresses by Eloquent Speakers—Spirited Singing of "Dixie"—Names of the Officers.

The Confederate Veterans' Association last evening celebrated its entry into its new home, 1412 H street, by opening wide the doors to a host of friends. Southern hospitality in the usual liberal measure was meted to the 300 guests, the majority of whom were ladies, who gathered at the hall to join with the veterans in the formal exercises and festivities of the occasion, and southern oratory was heard, as vigorous and as stirring as ever in the halcyon days in Dixie land.

The spirit of chivalry, of devotion to high ideals, of honor for traditions and of reverence for the memory of heroes, which reigned without let or hindrance throughout the evening, effected in the highest sense the dedication of the hall to the purposes for which it has been chosen. Henceforth the gatherings there of the sons and daughters of the south will be as assemblages upon their own health and by their own efforts.

Addresses by Eloquent Speakers. The meeting was addressed by Col. Hilary A. Herbert, formerly Secretary of the Navy and at one time president of the association; Chief Justice Seth Shepard, of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia; Mr. John Callaghan, the present president of the association; Maj. Holmes Conrad of Virginia and Col. John C. Haskell of Maryland. Occupying a seat on the platform was Miss Mary Custis Lee, a daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Her appearance was the signal for a burst of applause.

The exercises were opened under the direction of Maj. J. McD. Carrington in the absence of Mr. Callaghan, who had not then arrived. Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, rector of the Church of Epiphany and chaplain of the association, offered the invocation. After the chairman had called the meeting to order, the association sang an inspiring song written by Mr. J. Davis, financial secretary of the association, for the dedication of the hall. The tune, "Maryland, My Maryland," seemed to exactly suit the words and meter.

Congratulations Extended. President Callaghan, with appropriate remarks, presented Col. Herbert, who opened his address by congratulating his comrades on the pleasant grounds on which they had pitched their tent for the future. He trusted that the occasion was the beginning of a new lease of life for the association. It had, he said, a pleasant and useful career at the old home on 11th street, but he hoped that it would, even in old age, increase in growth and extend its activities in the more auspicious surroundings. He predicted a larger membership than the association had at present.

As we grow older, Col. Herbert said, "we ought to grow better, for if we do not we will surely become worse, and association with each other will help us through the difficulties of declining years." It was glorious, he thought, to remember the old days. All were proud to remember Lee and proud to have fought under his banner.

Lee on the Battlefield. Col. Herbert gave a graphic picture of his own vivid recollection of Lee on the battlefield. Of all the stirring spectacles of the civil war there was one which had particularly loved to recall, one which had impressed itself deeply upon his mind. He was referring to the heroic martial aspect of Gen. Lee as he had seen the southern commander-in-chief in the battle of Sharpsburg, seated on a charger and surveying the conflict from an eminence within the area of the fighting. Wilcox's brigade, as it passed by, cheered him and received his salute.

But it was not Gen. Lee as a soldier to which Col. Herbert wished to direct the attention of his hearers. It was Gen. Lee as a man. The speaker then referred feelingly to the bearing of the southern leader in defeat. It was after the war, Col. Herbert said, that the greatness of his

"The Most Valuable Mineral Water in Use."

Dr. Graeme M. Hammond of New York, Professor of the Mind and Nervous System in the New York Post-Graduate Medical School and Hospital: "In all cases of BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS I have found BUFFALO LITHIA WATER OF THE GREATEST SERVICE IN INCREASING THE QUANTITY OF URINE AND IN ELIMINATING THE ALBUMEN. In certain cases the patient has accompanied by EXCESSIVE ELIMINATION OF URATES AND URIC ACID. IT IS OFTEN THE ONLY REMEDY NECESSARY. IN GOUT AND RHEUMATISM IT IS HIGHLY BENEFICIAL. I HAVE LONG RECOMMENDED BUFFALO LITHIA WATER AS THE MOST VALUABLE MINERAL WATER IN USE."

"Especially BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia."

Samuel O. L. Potter, A.M., M.D., M.R.C.P., London, Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, San Francisco, in his handbook of PHARMACY, MATERIA MEDICA AND THERAPEUTICS, A TEXT BOOK IN MANY OF THE LEADING MEDICAL COLLEGES OF THE COUNTRY, under the head of ALBUMINURIA, page 800, THE EDITOR, IN THE CITATION OF REMEDIES, OF VIRGINIA IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED. In all cases of PREGNANCY where ALBUMIN is found in the urine as late as the last week before confinement, if this Water and a milk diet are prescribed, the ALBUMIN DISAPPEARS RAPIDLY FROM THE URINE AND THE PATIENT HAS A POSITION GUARANTY AGAINST PUPPERAL CONVULSIONS. Used as a substitute for ordinary water during the period of GESTATION, IT WILL BE FOUND INVALUABLE AS A PREVENTIVE OF PUPPERAL CONVULSIONS AND OTHER DISTURBANCES INCIDENT TO THIS CONDITION. It is also an undoubted tonic to both Mother and CHILD, LAXATIVE AT THE SAME TIME Nausea AND VOMITING."

of this city to identify themselves with the association.

Col. Herbert's speech was enthusiastically applauded. When he had taken his seat Mrs. Clay Browning, who was introduced as a "sweet singer of the south," so demonstrated the justice of the compliment that she was obliged to sing again.

Chief Justice Shepard, in opening his address, paid a tribute to the ladies, saying that by their presence he was assured of a happy future for the association in its new home.

"Wherever the southern veterans gather together," he said, "their hearts prompt their minds to turn to their great leader. As the years go on we are prouder and prouder to have followed his banner. He repudiated the suggestion of hero worship.

Living Vital Cause.

"What then," he asked, "is the living, vital cause? Why do we love to repeat the virtues of Gen. Lee? It is simply because he was a type—a type of the grandest manhood that ever walked the earth."

Maj. Conrad amplified this idea, saying that Gen. Lee's life represented the actual attainment and the high nobilities inherent in the civilization of the south. In him, the speaker declared, were found the standards of that nobility of life which Maj. Conrad said, is the real cause all true southern people are sworn to support.

Mrs. Adeline Duval Mack then recited the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" with dramatic effect.

Col. John C. Haskell, who was the last speaker, rehearsed some of the thrilling scenes of the war. He was well qualified to speak on this subject, having taken part in most of the great battles of the war, including an arm at Seven Pines. After the speaker had concluded, Miss Isabelle Sinclair sang two solos. Mr. Arthur Mayo was the accompanist. The formal part of the program ended with the singing of "Dixie."

Several Gifts Received.

In the course of the evening a portrait of General Lee, the gift of Mrs. J. J. Gillenwater, who was recently stricken with paralysis while speaking before the association, was received. Another tasteful present was a bouquet of flowers sent by Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president of the Ladies' Southern Relief Society. After the formal program had been rendered refreshments were served and a half hour of social entertainment was enjoyed.

The new home of the association has many advantages over the old quarters. It is spacious and well furnished, the walls being adorned with portraits of southern leaders. The association was organized February 25, 1891, for the purpose of renewing old war acquaintances and friendships and of doing as far as possible to honor the brave and deserving Confederate veterans and their families. Among the several general officers who have been members of the association are the names of Gen. Harvey Heth, Frank C. Armstrong, Marcellus J. Wright, Lindsay L. Lomax, Charles M. Shelby, C. C. Butler and Joseph Wheeler. The present officers are: John T. Callaghan, District of Columbia, president; J. McD. Carrington, Virginia, first vice president; Gabriel Edmonstone, District of Columbia, second vice president; Thomas W. Hungerford, District of Columbia, secretary; Joshua Davis, Maryland, financial secretary; Robert M. Harrover, Virginia, treasurer; Benjamin Thrift, Virginia, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. R. H. McKim,
